Dear Sir or Madam,

We have sent you a glasstec 2010 admission ticket voucher providing you with free access to the fair. In order to validate this voucher, you must activate it beforehand on the internet at the glasstec portal.

The advantage:

Online-activated vouchers help to avoid queues and waiting times, which have arisen in the past at the box offices and entrances through incorrect or non-completed vouchers.

In addition, as a registered visitor, you will receive personal access to the glasstec portal, where with the help of free tools you can professionally prepare your visit to the fair. We will explain how you can complete the voucher in three steps as shown below. You must however definitely remember to bring the activated voucher with you to the fair, where it will be exchanged on site for a regular admission ticket. The voucher is of course valid as a travel ticket for the outward trip using all Rhine-Ruhr Transport Authority (VRR) public transport, second class (without supplements).

 The screenshot shows a registration form with the registration number 000000 - a32b. It includes instructions in German and English on how to activate the voucher online.
